

ARBEIT UND LEBEN Sachsen, Ulrike Stansch

Tackling populism and Euroscepticism at local level

Fakten statt Populismus

Argumente gegen Vorurteile

Workshops, i.a. "Facts instead of populism!"

- Workshops and reasoning guidelines for multipliers
- Target group: adolescents at schools and young employees
- in cooperation with the German Federation of Trade Unions

Prejudices? Inquire! A beermat explains

Projects in daycare centres

- Mentors with a migration background teach their languages, cultures and ways of life to kindergartners
- Intercultural training for child care workers

Project "Welcome! to Chemnitz Welcome! to be in employment"

- Intercultural opening of the working world
- Company-specific seminar offers for companies and employees
- Empowerment and development of intercultural competences
- Integration of new foreign colleagues
- More than 300 executives, trainers and employees have been trained

Conferment of the title "Companies which encourage tolerance"

- Companies are honoured which actively promote democracy, integration, diversity and tolerance and which fight against racism and discrimination
- Is addressed to small, medium and large enterprises in Saxony
- Partners: German Federation of Trade Unions in the district of Saxony, association of the Saxon economy, Saxon Minister of State for Equality and Integration, "Kulturbüro Sachsen" (cultural office of Saxony)

Tackling populism and Euroscepticism at local level

contact:

ARBEIT UND LEBEN Sachsen Könneritzstr. 3-5 01067 Dresden Tel.: 0351 / 4265820

E-Mail: dresden@arbeitundleben.eu

Web: www.arbeitundleben.eu