

Report of Conference on the Future of Europe Talk organised by CoR Member Giuseppe Varacalli (Italy, Renew Europe)

Re-start Europa: Siderno together with young people for the future

Organised by:	European Committee of the Regions, City of Siderno, Europe Direct
Partners:	Università della Calabria
Date and time of the event:	13 May 2022, 10:00-12:00
Event type:	Hybrid
Location(s) of event	Siderno – Calabria
Total number of participants:	150
Type of participants:	High school and university students
Name of CoR Members participating:	Giuseppe Varacalli
Name(s) of representatives from other EU institutions	Sandro Gozi, European Parliament
Conference on the Future of Europe theme(s) covered during the event:	Education, culture, youth and sport
Permanent Dialogue Mechanism:	1) Studying languages and specialising in something
	2) Getting to know different places and customs to broaden one's knowledge and outlook
	3) Daring, not being afraid, being proactive, getting involved, in any field, doing business, Citizens are asking for a more powerful, more democratic and more effective Europe
	4) It is essential to think of the school not only as a place for transmitting information but as a real emotional and social 'container'
	5) An essential place for growth and being challenged, a bridge between family and society

Hyperlinks to pictures:

https://www.icloud.com/photos/#0ebiKnWzwxt0Sc_KXqILEAR0Q

