

European Committee of the Regions

CITY OF CLUJ-NAPOCA

Europe unfolds in Transylvania: Building on democracy, education and youth

What's next after the Conference on the Future of Europe?

Cluj-Napoca | 19 May 2022

Casino Urban Cultural Center | 16:30-18:00 EEST (15:30-17:00 CET)

Following the public debates within the framework of the Conference for the Future of Europe, as well as the European Summit of Regions and Cities in Marseille, which launched the Marseille Manifesto of local and regional leaders and a co-creation process for a European Charter on Youth and Democracy, time has come to citizens to have a say on democracy, education and youth and to shape their future.

15:30 Registration

16:30 Welcome and opening statements

Emil Boc, Mayor of Cluj-Napoca, President of the Romanian Association of Municipalities (AMR),
Member of the European Committee of the Regions

Apostolos Tzitzikostas, President of the European Committee of the Regions

Nicolae Ciucă, Prime Minister of Romania

Biró Rozália Ibolya, delegate MP at the Conference of the Future of Europe - video message

Victor Negrescu, Member of the European Parliament - video message

17:00 Dialogue with the audience

17:45 Closing remarks

Nicolae Ciucă, Prime Minister of Romania

Apostolos Tzitzikostas, President of the European Committee of the Regions

Emil Boc, Mayor of Cluj-Napoca, President of the Romanian Association of Municipalities,
Member of the European Committee of the Regions